HEADTEACHER'S NOTE

It was lovely to see the return of the Belham's Summer Music Concert this week with a range of musical performances from over 50 pupils. I was especially impressed with the opening and closing ensemble pieces where a great amount of skill was displayed. All pupils performed brilliantly and I hope that they are feeling proud of themselves – I certainly was after watching them play. A huge thank you to Nancy Wayman for organising the evening and to our peripatetic teachers, including Ben Duff and Georgia Morrison who were also supporting the children during their performances.

PERIPATETIC INSTRUMENTAL LESSONS 22/23

If you're interested in the peripatetic instrumental scheme for your child, you have until Monday to register for a trial lesson on the flute, cello, recorder, trumpet, violin or ukulele. See the email you received on 13th June for details of how to register.

Thank you,
Nancy Wayman

BEE ART WORKSHOP – PRINTS

Before half term, Years 4 and 5 had a workshop with renowned artist Jessica Albarn www.jessicaalbarn.co.uk and produced some absolutely fantastic bee based art. Jessica is working with a top end fine art print studio, Jealous Gallery www.jealousgallery.com to turn the children's work into limited edition signed prints, with a beautiful gold hand screen printed overlay. We're really excited that each child who was involved in the production will be able to own one of these prints.

We are hoping that proofs of these incredibly high quality prints will be available to view at the Art Show next week, and we will be opening up a Just Giving donation page to take orders soon. Here are some pictures of the prints in development at Jealous studios as the artist works in collaboration with the printer to design the overlay and work out the final design. Once the design is finalised, each image will be hand printed with the gold overlay!
