Kathryn Phillips

Members were joined by Mark Raben from Dulwich Hamlets Junior School Friends' Association and Deputy Head

Digging dates to be arranged for work in the Coplestone Road garden.

Very good feedback after the Kid's disco, which made a profit. Repeat it at Xmas and Easter.

Most T towels have been sold. A profit of about £370 is expected.

110 people have registered for the quiz. Pay on arrival. Running order: quiz, break for true or false game (£1 to take part, winner gets a half of the take), quiz, raffle. 6 bottles of Prosecco for winners. Box of chocolates for losers. 5 raffle prizes. Pizza can be ordered.

21.08.16 and 04.09.16 Warwick Gardens picnic.

15.09.16 Peckham walk. Start near school and walk for about 1.5 hours. About 12 people have shown interest.

Michael will sell Xmas trees.

Other suggestions: Xmas fair; Halloween disco; early October cake sale; Xmas theme cake sale; Halloween dress-up day; September coffee morning; book swap (bring books, pay £5 and can take 5 books away); film and sell Nativity play DVD (if allowed).

The next FOB meeting is on 5 September at the White Horse public house.
